(b) if so, the details thereof; and

(c) whether any additional financial package has been given to States to meet the situation?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF HOME AFFAIRS (SHRI SHRIPRAKASH JAISWAL): (a) to (b) Yes, Sir. However, major naxal affected States already have surrender-cum-rehabilitation schemes for naxalities who want to shun violence and join the mainstream. While the incentive package varies from State to State, the Central Government reimburses under the Security Related Expenditure (SRE) Scheme to the naxalite affected States expenditure upto Rs.20,000 per surrenderee depending upon whether the naxalite has surrendered with arms or without arms.

(c) The Govt. has adopted a multi-pronged approach to combat the naxal problem which, inter-alia, includes focused attention on integrated socio-economic development in the naxal affected areas. Besides various Centrally sponsored schemes meanst to provide funds to the States for socio-economic development, the Central Government has sanctioned Rs.2475 crores under the Backward Districts Initiative (BDI) component of the Rashtriya Sam Vikas Yojana (RSVY) to fill in the critical gaps in social and physical infrastructure in the naxal affected districts.
